AHMED SABER ABBAS ALI

Accountant

Graduate of Islamic University of Minnesota — Doctorate (PhD). 2026

Summary

A researcher holding a Ph.D. in the Holy Quran and Its Sciences and a Bachelor's degree in Accounting, combining Islamic studies, financial accuracy, and programming skills. I possess an integrated background bridging specialized academic research, financial analysis, and technical solutions, with a genuine passion for Islamic outreach (Da'wah) and community service. I seek to leverage these diverse disciplines to deliver high-quality work that blends authenticity with innovation, and to develop technological and research tools that serve Islamic knowledge and sciences.

Work Experience

Programmer

2000–Present

Freelancer

Designed and developed tailored accounting software for small businesses, operational and utility systems for feed and textile manufacturing plants to enhance administrative and production efficiency, alongside creating innovative technical applications to facilitate learning and research in Islamic and cognitive sciences.

Accountant

2022–Present

APS Arab Contracting Company

Managed financial operations, prepared financial statements, and conducted financial auditing and controls across multiple commercial and service enterprises, while executing assigned administrative duties to enhance workplace efficiency and bridge financial precision with effective management.
