BIN DAWOOD, YOUSEF MOUSA S

Teacher

Graduate of Islamic University of Minnesota — Master's degree, 2026

Summary

Born in Ad-Diriyah in 1389 AH (1969/1970 CE), he graduated from the College of Sharia at Imam Mohammad Ibn Saud Islamic University in 1414 AH (1994 CE). He holds an ijaza (certification) in the Holy Qur'an across three recitations with a continuous chain of transmission (Sanad) back to the Prophet Muhammad ﷺ. He studied under prominent scholars, most notably His Eminence Sheikh Abdul Aziz ibn Baz (may Allah have mercy on him), attending his circles from 1412 AH until his passing.

He possesses a distinguished legacy of service spanning 34 years as an Imam, 26 years as a Khateeb (Friday preacher), and 30 years in education—including 22 years as a teacher in public Qur'an memorization schools. His efforts also include supervising Qur'an memorization circles, actively contributing to the construction and maintenance of mosques, and managing their scientific and social activities.
