NUR AHMED MOALIM MOHAMED

General Manager

Graduate of Islamic University of Minnesota — Master's degree, 2026

Summary

I was born in 1990 in the city of Ceelgaal, Galguduud region, Somalia, and raised in an academic and educational environment. My journey began with memorizing the Holy Quran and pursuing Islamic studies, followed by my formal education in Mogadishu, where I completed high school in 2010.

I studied at the Islamic University of Madinah in the Faculty of Hadith and Islamic Studies, and later earned a Bachelor's degree in Law from SIMAD University in 2018, as well as a Higher Diploma in Education from Al-Hikmah University.

I have extensive experience in education and administration, having worked as a teacher for several years and served as Deputy Director of the Grand Dar Al-Hadith Center in Mogadishu. I also founded the Al-Munir Institute for Sharia and Cultural Sciences, which I currently manage, aiming to advance Sharia and cultural education and nurture a generation that combines academic grounding, educational awareness, and leadership skills.

I aspire to continue my academic and professional career, contributing to the development of educational institutions, serving the community, and spreading knowledge.
